READING COMPREHENSION

There once was a 5 year old girl named Sue who had a sister Donna and a brother Jim. Donna was just a baby but Jim was 2 years older than Sue. Everyday Jim walked Sue to school since he wanted to be sure she got there safely. After school Jim played sports with his friends so Sue walked home with friends. Once in a while they would stop and play, but usually they came right home.

A-MAZE A FRIEND

MR. JONES

Here is a maze you can do on your own. Mr. Jones wants to meet his friend .Which is the only friend he can get to? If you need help, the answer is in the middle of page 8.

AMERICAN FRIEND

One thousand miles from home, you can still feel at home in the company of friends.

So when you're away from home, make sure you have a friend.

And when you're home again, make sure you have a friend.

Because when you're home again, you'll be home again.

So when you're away from home, make sure you have a friend.

And when you're home again, make sure you have a friend.

Because when you're home again, you'll be home again.

So when you're away from home, make sure you have a friend.

And when you're home again, make sure you have a friend.

Because when you're home again, you'll be home again.

So when you're away from home, make sure you have a friend.

And when you're home again, make sure you have a friend.

Because when you're home again, you'll be home again.

So when you're away from home, make sure you have a friend.

And when you're home again, make sure you have a friend.

Because when you're home again, you'll be home again.

So when you're away from home, make sure you have a friend.

And when you're home again, make sure you have a friend.

Because when you're home again, you'll be home again.
